"QUILTING HAS NEVER BEEN SEW EASY! I WAS ONCE A TOPPER AND NOW I AM A QUILTER."

QUOTE FROM AN ANONYMOUS QUILTER

It's been a busy year for QBOT!

Since QBOT was introduced in June of 2008 there have been many things happening. You have purchased QBOT with the anticipation of quilting your first quilt using automation. WOW! You have succeeded. You have posted your picture on the QBOTSquad Yahoo Group site to share with everyone. We are also very excited about the feedback that you have given us with regard to what you would like to see in the future upgrades with QBOT. We are pleased that we could meet many of your requests when introducing 2.0 version of QBOT. Thank you for helping us with the best launch of QBOT and getting the word out about the upgrade to 2.0. Just a reminder to check out the new collections from Golden Threads. Go to www.goldenthreads.com for more info.

Thank you,

Don't miss out taking the on-line classes with Denise Applegate-Schober

Each month classes are offered to help teach you about quilting and QBOT. These classes have been held a few times each month. We are excited to announce that we will be having 4 classes each month beginning in January. They will be held on Monday's and/or Tuesday's of each month starting on January 18th and 25th. January 18th classes will be at 9 am and 9 pm EST. January 25th classes will be at 3 pm and 9 pm EST. Here is the most exciting news of all. January 25th class will be a quilting class geared to build skills. This class is geared to help you with quilting techniques and skill building. To attend class you will need to purchase the laser cut kit for the project that we will be teaching. On average the class will take 3 to 4 months to complete and quilt. Each kit includes the fabric for the quilt blocks, instructions for the project and the designs to quilt the project with QBOT. You may purchase these from your local QBOT Dealership. If they do not carry them, you may special order with Denise.

We have had great reviews with the Dealers on the the 1st project that we are going to start with. It is a log cabin table runner. Some of you may say this is simple...keep in mind we are skill building and there are many people who have never completed a log cabin block let alone a table runner.

Table Runner

Quilting Fundamentals Online Class

This log cabin table runner is a great class for beginners and seasoned quilters alike. This is most likely your first quilting class where there will be no or not much cutting. We will be using laser cut kits. Each piece is notched for accurate piecing. Even if you have never pieced a block before this class you will succeed.

Contact your local QBOT Dealer or contact kits@myqbot.com to find your nearest Dealer. Please put in the subject line "Log Cabin Class"

Class details will be on www.myqbot.com

HOLIDAY TREATS...SNICKERDOODLE COOKIE

was made every year by my Grandma Florence Desbrough

1 cup butter or Crisco	2 teaspoons cream of tartar
1 1/2 cups sugar	1 teaspoons baking soda
2 eggs or egg substitute	2 3/4 cups flour
cinnamon and sugar mixed to taste

Preheat oven to 400F. Mix together butter and sugar until smooth, then add eggs, cream of tartar, and baking soda. Stir in flour until well mixed. Roll into balls about 1" in diameter and roll in cinnamon and sugar to coat. Place on ungreased cookie sheets and bake 8-10 minutes. Cookies are done when they are just barely brown. ENJOY!
